

Book Launch

Stuart Macintyre's The Party

Where: Solidarity Hall,
Victorian Trades Hall

When: 5:30 for 6 pm,
Wednesday 16 March 2022

Prominent Australian labour historian Stuart Macintyre finished the second volume of his history of the CPA not long before his untimely death in November 2021.

The Party was published on 1 February 2022, but the planned launch in early February was postponed due to COVID-19 issues. It will now be launched in Melbourne on Wednesday 16 March 2022, in the Solidarity Hall at Victorian Trades Hall, Carlton - Victoria Street entry, near corner of Lygon Street.

Frank Bongiorno, Professor of History at the Australian National University and a close colleague of Stuart, will launch the book.

The launch will be followed by a panel discussion on Stuart Macintyre's contributions to Australian labour history in general and the history of communism in Australia in particular, moderated by

Carmel Shute, former historian and CPA member. The panel members will be:

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| Joy Damousi | Historian, Australian Catholic University |
| Julie Kimber | Historian and federal secretary of the Australian Society for the Study of Labour History (ASSLH) |
| Julius Roe | Former national president of the Australian Manufacturing Workers Union (AMWU) and former CPA member |

The launch will be followed by drinks and light refreshments.
